Model answer

1-answer the following questions:

- 1-To become rich ,the merchants had to take some big risks.It cost a lot of money to buy the ships and to pay the people who worked on them.the merchants also had to pay for the things they bought.sometimes a ship sank in a storm,and everything was lost.sometimes the ships were attacked by pirates who stole cargoes or burned the ships.sometimes the sailors stole the cargo or the ship. There were many dangers.
- 2- Solanio said these words to Antonio while his friends were trying to know why he was sad but noone of his friends could know the reason.solanio thought that Antonio was in love but Antonio disagreed as he said that he was bored.this can show that Antonio was loved by his friends and he was a good friend but they couldn't understand the reason behind his sadness.
- 3-Antonio became rich by selling and buying goods.
- 4- Both of Antonio and Portia were rich but they were both sad because the happiness was not in money as Antonia had everything but he was bored and couldn't enjoy his life and even his friends couldn't understand why he was sad and failed to make him happy.Portia also was a miserable person because of her father's will and she couldn't marry the man she was in love with so she was sad and she had to marry the one who was going to choose the right box.

5-Bassanio thought that Graziano talked a lot but said nothing.He also said "Trying to find a meaning in his words is like trying to find a needle in a haystack,if you do find it ,you soon discover that it is not sharp".that means that he was a shallow ,trivial and talkative person.

6- Portia was a miserable person as she was dissatisfied with her father's will.She was unhappy as she wanted a husband ,but her father's will stopped her from choosing one that she liked.Consequently ,it stopped her from refusing one that she didn't like.Her father arranged a guessing game for men who came to court his daughter and the one who was going to choose the right box,was going to marry her.

7- I think that portia was totally right because marriage should be based on love and mutual understanding rather than wealth or power .One has to choose carefully .She was very wise as she abided by all that was in the will and finally God rewarded her for her obedience by letting her marry the person she was in love with.
